BECAUSE truth MATTERS®

Dear Readers,

I would like to take a moment to thank each of you for your continued support of B&H Academic Publishing. Here at B&H Academic, we are more dedicated than ever to providing resources for undergraduate and graduate theological education, as well as pastors and ministry leaders. We are actively working alongside authors, professors, and pastors who are at the top of their fields in order to publish biblically faithful resources, which are academically challenging, promote the academy, and champion the church. I am proud of our work this year, and I believe we have produced truly excellent contributions in the area of Christian academic publishing.

In this New Release Catalog you will see all of our new and upcoming releases through the middle of 2020. I am thrilled to get these into your hands and see how the Lord will utilize them to grow students in the classroom and ministers in the local church. The future of B&H Academic is bright, and I'm so thankful to all of our loyal authors, contributors, and readers.

Sincerely,

Jim Baird

SBC AND THE 21ST CENTURY, Revised

REFLECTION, RENEWAL, AND RECOMMITMENT

Jason K. Allen

The Southern Baptist Convention is currently facing issues that challenge its identity, heritage, and future. In The SBC and the 21st Century, Revised Edition, key leaders address critical issues such as:

- Will the SBC grow more unified around shared convictions and mission or will it fragment over secondary concerns and tertiary doctrinal differences?
- Will the SBC be able to maintain a distinct Baptist identity while engaging and partnering with the broader evangelical community?
- Will the SBC be willing to reimagine its structures, programs, and efforts to effectively reach the world for Christ or will it risk being a past-tense denomination?

This volume not only promotes meaningful dialogue, it calls leaders throughout the SBC into action. Extensive thought, research, assessment, and wisdom from some of the SBC's brightest minds have been poured into this volume with the intent of rendering a helpful contribution to SBC life that will propel forward the collective work of Southern Baptists well into the twenty-first century.

JASON K. ALLEN is President of Midwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, Kansas City, MO.

SUPERHEROES CAN'T SAVE YOU: STUDY GUIDE

Jared Musgrove

Have you ever wondered what makes Jesus different from your favorite superhero? Have you questioned how Jesus could really be all that the Bible says he is? This seven-week study, used in conjunction with Todd Miles' Superheroes Can't Save You, will challenge you to keep asking these questions and point you to answers that are grounded in the Bible's unchanging truth.

Features:

- No additional leader guide required! This guide contains all of the participant information, plus instructions and suggestions for the week's discussion leader.
- Each week begins with independent work in "The Prologue," brings the group together for discussion as part of "The League," and concludes with a time of personal reflection and application in "The Fortress of Solitude."
- Invites you to dive in to an in-depth yet accessible study of Christology – the study of the person, nature, and role of Jesus Christ.
- Great for youth and college groups and adults of all ages who want to learn about Jesus as the Bible reveals him.

JARED MUSGROVE is the groups pastor at The Village Church in Flower Mound, TX.

EXEGETICAL GUIDE TO THE GREEK NEW TESTAMENT

HEBREWS

Dana M. Harris

The Exegetical Guide to the Greek New Testament (EGGNT) closes the gap between the Greek text and the available lexical and grammatical tools, providing all the necessary information for greater understanding of the text. The series makes interpreting any given New Testament book easier, especially for those who are hard pressed for time but want to preach or teach with accuracy and authority.

Each volume begins with a brief introduction to the particular New Testament book, a basic outline, and a list of recommended commentaries. The body is devoted to paragraph-by-paragraph exegesis of the Greek text and includes homiletical helps and suggestions for further study. A comprehensive exegetical outline of the New Testament book completes each EGGNT volume.

DANA M. HARRIS serves as Associate Professor of New Testament at Trinity Evangelical Divinity School.

WHO IS THE HOLY SPIRIT?

BIBLICAL INSIGHTS INTO HIS DIVINE PERSON

Hobbs College Library Series

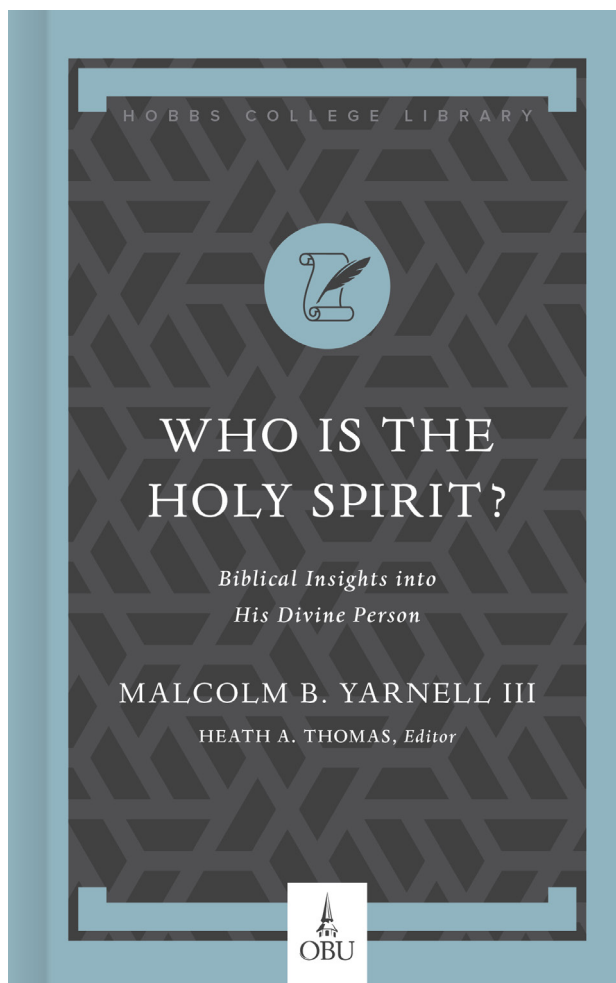

Malcolm B. Yarnell III

Who Is the Holy Spirit? aims to help readers see the Holy Spirit through Scripture's description of him, offering biblical insights into the identity of the third person of the Trinity. With consideration for the Spirit's identity derived from both Old and New Testament accounts, author Malcolm B. Yarnell focuses on identifying characteristics of the person of the Holy Spirit himself, rather than discussing the work of the Spirit solely in the context of salvation and sanctification, or external signs and wonders.

MALCOLM B. YARNELL III is Research Professor of Systematic Theology at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Fort Worth, TX.

CONTENTS

1. Where Do We Begin? Insights from Genesis 1
2. Is the Spirit Also the Sovereign Lord God? Insights from 1 Samuel 10–19
3. Why Call the Spirit “Holy”? Insights from Psalm 51
4. Who Is the Holy Spirit to Jesus? Insights from the Gospel of Matthew
5. Who Is This Person? Insights from the Gospel of John
6. Who Is the Holy Spirit to Believers? Insights from Romans 8

THE BIBLE STORY

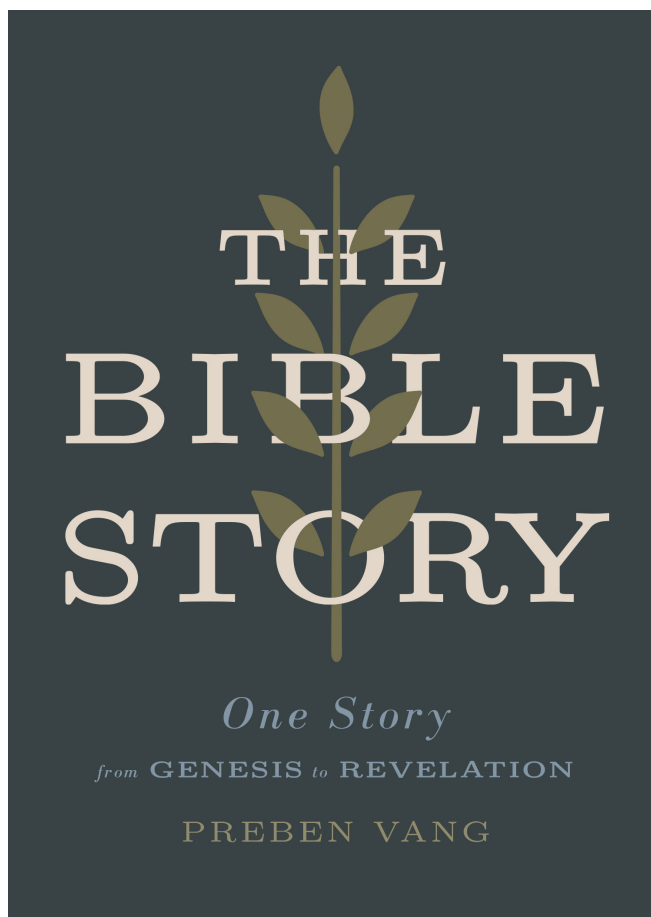

ONE STORY FROM GENESIS TO REVELATION

Preben Vang

The Bible Story: One Story from Genesis to Revelation is an accessible booklet, in which the author walks through the story of the Bible from beginning to end. Sitting at just under 30 pages and sized at 5x7 inches, this book is portable, affordable, and easy to distribute. This is a book that is within the purchasing power of average churches, is beautifully designed for a younger audience, and meets a specific need in discipleship and outreach programs— teaching people how to understand and communicate the whole story of the Bible. This booklet clearly communicates the story of the Bible, while still being a quick read and easy to digest. It is positioned well for use by small groups, seminary classes, and evangelistic efforts. It could also be used for general church needs like welcome packages and new member classes.

Additionally, if readers, churches, or professors choose to delve deeper into The Bible Story, there is built-in continuity with Telling God's Story, the book from which it is adapted. The third edition of Telling God's Story is being released in 2020.

PREBEN VANG is Professor of Christian Scriptures and Director of the Doctor of Ministry program at Baylor University.

THE HEART OF REVELATION

UNDERSTANDING THE 10 ESSENTIAL THEMES OF THE BIBLE'S FINAL BOOK

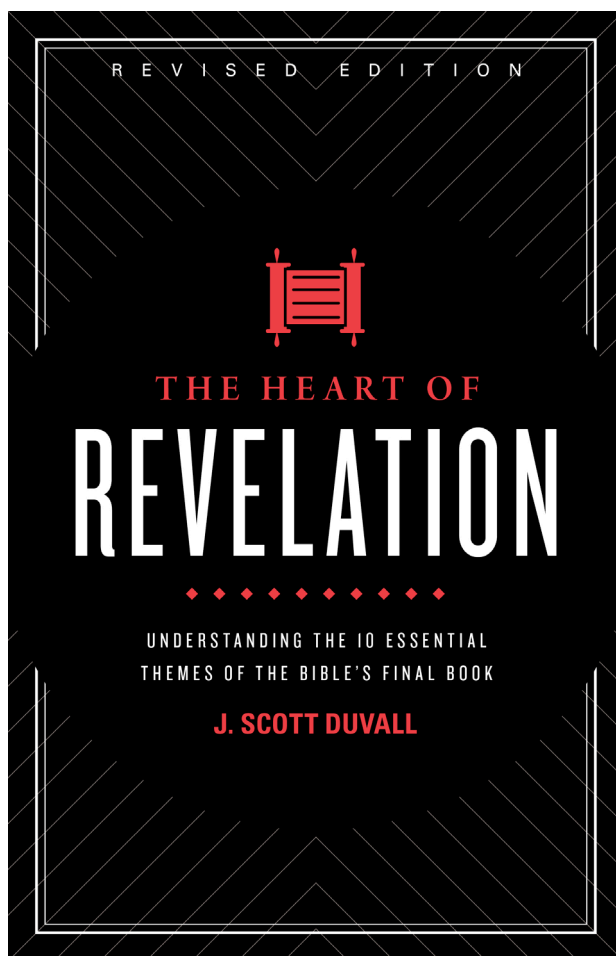

J. Scott Duvall

The book of Revelation speaks powerfully to every aspect of the Christian life, and the modern church desperately needs the vision of hope that it provides. In this thematic approach to the Bible's final book, author J. Scott Duvall identifies ten major themes, including: God and his people, worship, enemies, the mission, and the new creation. In The Heart of Revelation, readers will understand how to read Revelation in context, asking, "What are the main truths and realities of Revelation that we can know for certain?" and learning how these truths are relevant to our lives as modern-day believers.

J. SCOTT DUVALL is Professor of New Testament and J. C. and Mae Fuller Chair of Biblical Studies at Ouachita Baptist University in Arkadelphia, AR.

CONTENTS

1. God: "The Almighty"
2. Worship: "You Are Worthy"

PREACHING FOR A VERDICT

RECOVERING THE ROLE OF EXHORTATION

J. Josh Smith

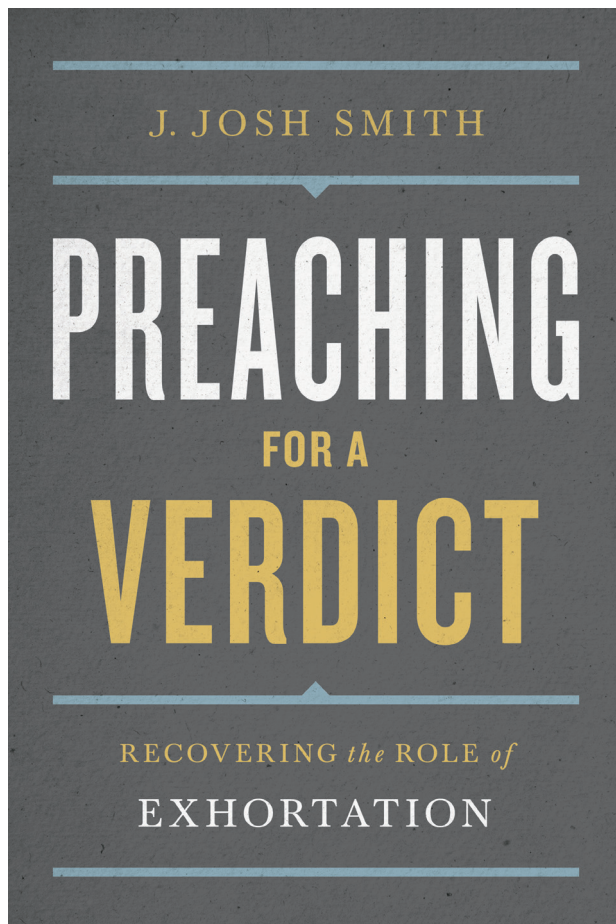

Those who preach have been called to deliver the truth and must do so with a conviction that every truth demands a response.

J. Josh Smith aims to start a conversation about the role of exhortation in preaching. With emphasis on the biblical and theological foundation for exhortation, and attention to how exhortation is used in both Old and New Testaments, Smith makes a compelling argument that preaching must include both explanation and exhortation. Preaching for a Verdict also provides practical steps to implement effective exhortation in preaching and offers a variety of biblical models of exhortation to equip the reader to deliver the message of Christ with authority. Text-driven preaching demands text-driven exhortation.

J. JOSH SMITH is Senior Pastor of Prince Avenue Baptist Church in Athens, GA.

SPIRITUAL WARFARE IN THE STORYLINE OF SCRIPTURE

A BIBLICAL, THEOLOGICAL, AND PRACTICAL APPROACH

William F. Cook III and Chuck Lawless

In Spiritual Warfare in the Storyline of Scripture, authors William F. Cook III and Chuck Lawless provide a comprehensive study of a topic that is of key importance in the life of every believer. Surveying and analyzing incidents of spiritual warfare from Genesis through Revelation, the authors create a biblical framework for understanding the reality of Satan's on-going assault on humankind. Building on that framework, Spiritual Warfare in the Storyline of Scripture also offers practical insights into some of Satan's most common attacks on believers and strategies for how we might stand against his onslaught. Readers of this book will gain a more complete understanding of what the Bible teaches about spiritual warfare in order to live in victory, confident that Satan is an enemy who has already been defeated.

WILLIAM F. COOK III is Professor of New Testament Interpretation at The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary and Lead Pastor of Ninth and O Baptist Church in Louisville, KY.

CHUCK LAWLESS is Professor of Evangelism and Missions, Dean of Doctoral Studies, and Vice President for Spiritual Formation and Ministry Centers at Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary. He also serves as team leader for Theological Education Strategists for the International Mission Board.

PERSPECTIVES ON FAMILY MINISTRY, 2nd Edition

THREE VIEWS

Edited By: Timothy Paul Jones

Every church is called to some form of family ministry, but this calling requires far more than adding another program to an already-packed schedule. The most effective family ministries refocus every church process to engage parents in discipling their children and to draw family members together instead of pulling them apart. In this second edition, Jones expands the definition of family ministry and broadens the book's focus to address urban perspectives and family ministry in diverse settings.

TIMOTHY PAUL JONES is C. Edwin Gheens Professor of Christian Family Ministry; Associate Vice President for the Global Campus; and the Chair of the Department of Apologetics, Ethics, and Philosophy at The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in Louisville, KY.

CONTENTS

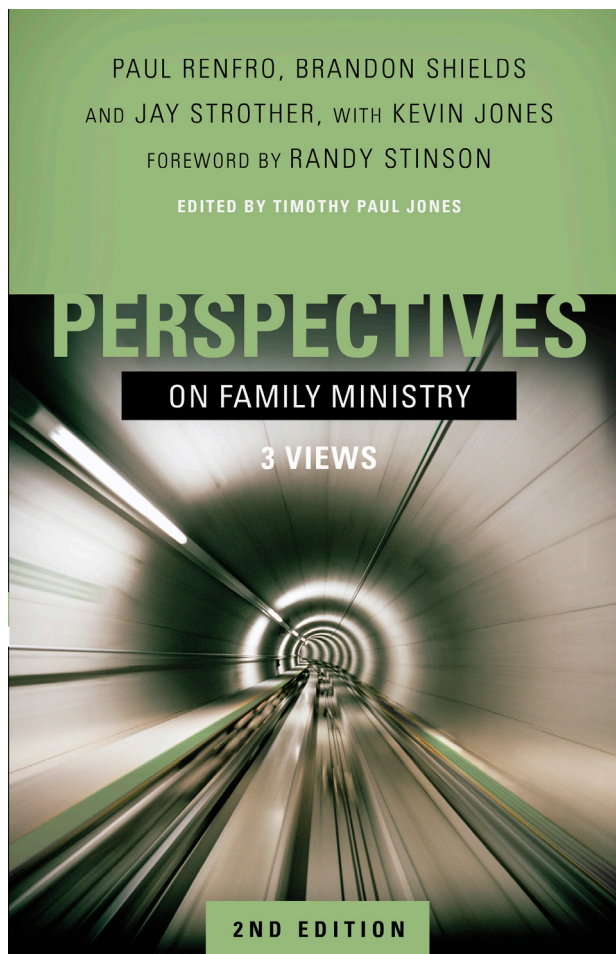

PART ONE: FOUNDATIONS FOR FAMILY MINISTRY

AMERICAN HISTORY, Combined Edition

1492-PRESENT

Thomas S. Kidd

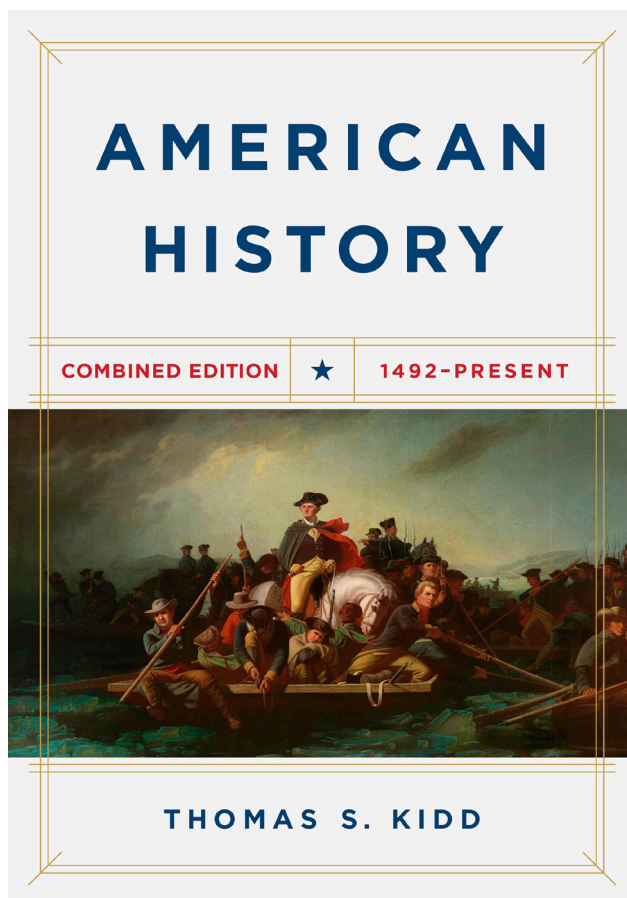

In this combined edition, the full content of volumes 1 and 2 of Thomas Kidd's American History are brought together in a single, accessible textbook. This sweeping narrative spans the full scope of American history from the first Native American societies to the political and cultural struggles of contemporary times. In clear, readable prose, and with attention to well-known and more obscure figures from American history, Kidd gives a robust account of the events, people, and ideas that gave shape to our nation.

Students will come away from American History well-informed and better prepared to wrestle with the political and cultural changes that have dramatically transformed contemporary American life.

THOMAS S. KIDD is Distinguished Professor of History, James Vardaman Endowed Professor of History, and Associate Director of the Institute for Studies of Religion at Baylor University in Waco, TX. Dr. Kidd is also the Distinguished Visiting Professor of Church History at Midwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Kansas City, MO.

URBAN LEGENDS OF THE OLD TESTAMENT

40 COMMON MISCONCEPTIONS

David A. Croteau and Gary E. Yates

Urban Legends of the Old Testament surveys 40 of the most commonly misinterpreted passages in the Old Testament. These “urban legends” often arise because interpreters neglect a passage’s context, misuse historical background information, or misunderstand the original language of the text.

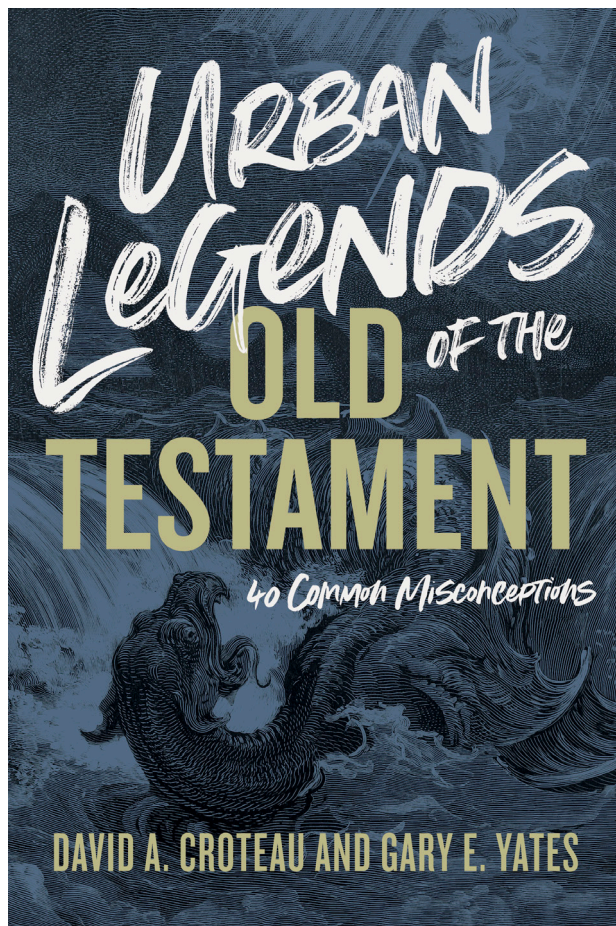

With a pastoral tone and helpful explanations of where the error originally occurred, authors David A. Croteau and Gary E. Yates tackle legendary biblical misinterpretations of topics like the origin of evil or the purpose of Mosaic food laws, as well as common misconceptions about dinosaurs or NASA discovering Joshua’s long day. Urban Legends of the Old Testament will help readers avoid missteps in the interpretation of key biblical texts while modeling interpretative techniques that can also be applied to other Old Testament passages.

DAVID A. CROTEAU is Professor of New Testament and Greek and Director of the Ph.D. program at Columbia University.

GARY E. YATES is Professor of Old Testament at Liberty University.

THE BIBLE EXPOSITOR'S HANDBOOK, OLD AND NEW TESTAMENTS

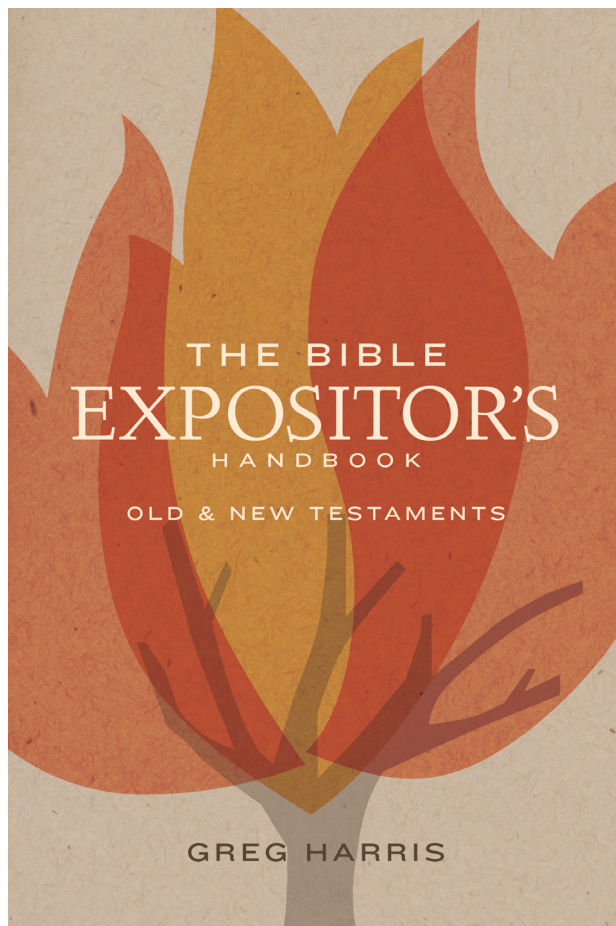

Greg Harris

The Bible Expositor's Handbook provides a thorough introduction to the attitudes and practices required to deeply understand the message of the Old and New Testaments. Exhorting students of Scripture to approach the Bible with an attitude of humility and expectation, Greg Harris lays the groundwork for a Christ-centered interpretation that takes into account the redemptive story of the whole Bible. Employing a literal-grammatical hermeneutic, Harris leads the reader through the process of observing, interpreting, and applying God's Word.

GREG HARRIS is Emeritus Professor of Bible Exposition at The Master's Seminary in Sun Valley, CA.

EXEGETICAL GUIDE TO THE GREEK NEW TESTAMENT

2 CORINTHIANS

Colin G. Kruse

The Exegetical Guide to the Greek New Testament (EGGNT) closes the gap between the Greek text and the available lexical and grammatical tools, providing all the necessary information for greater understanding of the text. The series makes interpreting any given New Testament book easier, especially for those who are hard pressed for time but want to preach or teach with accuracy and authority.

Each volume begins with a brief introduction to the particular New Testament book, a basic outline, and a list of recommended commentaries. The body is devoted to paragraph-by-paragraph exegesis of the Greek text and includes homiletical helps and suggestions for further study. A comprehensive exegetical outline of the New Testament book completes each EGGNT volume.

COLIN G. KRUSE is Senior Lecturer of New Testament at Melbourne School of Theology.

CHRISTIAN THEOLOGY

THE BIBLICAL STORY AND OUR FAITH

Christopher W. Morgan with Robert A. Peterson

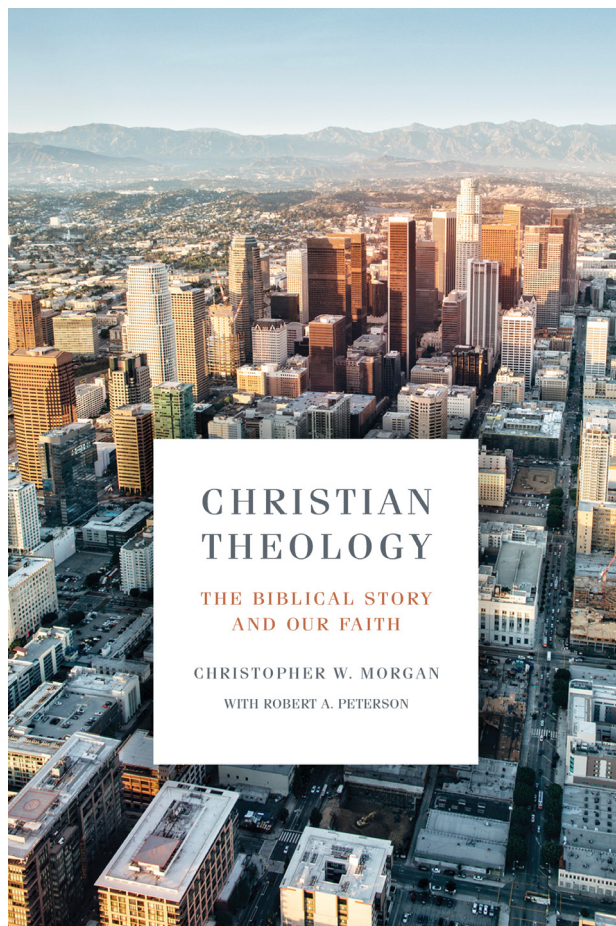

This study of Christian theology takes a fresh approach by framing doctrine in light of the whole biblical story. Each chapter contains application which brings specific theological concepts to bear on our Christian identity and mission. In this way, readers gain a unique understanding of topics such as: God, revelation, humanity, sin, Christ and his work, salvation, the church, and the future.

CHRISTOPHER W. MORGAN serves as Professor of Theology and Dean of the School of Christian Ministries at California Baptist University in Riverside, CA.

ROBERT A. PETERSON is a systematic theologian and writer who was a professor of theology for thirty-five years.

BAPTISTS AND THE CHRISTIAN TRADITION

TOWARDS AN EVANGELICAL BAPTIST CATHOLICITY

Edited by Matthew Y. Emerson, Christopher W. Morgan, and R. Lucas Stamps

In Baptists and the Christian Tradition, editors Matthew Emerson, Christopher Morgan, and Lucas Stamps compile a series of essays advocating “Baptist catholicity.” This approach presupposes a critical, but charitable, engagement with the whole church, both past and present, along with the desire to move beyond the false polarities of an Enlightenment-based individualism on the one hand and a pastiche of postmodern relativism on the other.

MATTHEW Y. EMERSON is Associate Professor of Religion and holds the Dickinson Chair of Religion at Oklahoma Baptist University in Shawnee, OK.

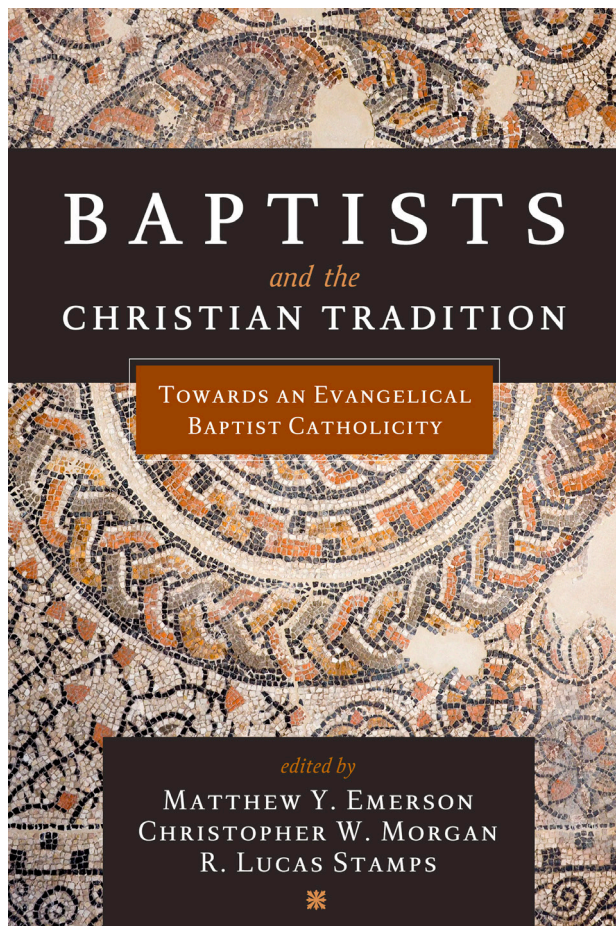

CHRISTOPHER W. MORGAN is Dean of the School of Christian Ministries and Professor of Theology at California Baptist University in Riverside, CA.

R. LUCAS STAMPS is Associate Professor of Theology at Anderson University in Anderson, SC.

SHARING JESUS WITHOUT FREAKING OUT, 2nd Edition

EVANGELISM THE WAY YOU WERE BORN TO DO IT

D. Scott Hildreth and Steven A. McKinion

Everyday conversations can lead to gospel transformation when you talk to people about their blessings and brokenness.

As a Christian, God has equipped you to be an effective evangelist to the people you interact with every day. Still, many of us tend to freak out about sharing our faith with others. Readers of Sharing Jesus Without Freaking Out will find themselves emboldened to live a lifestyle of evangelism that is authentic, conversational, and intentional. Second edition authors Scott Hildreth and Steven McKinion have expanded the content, rewritten chapters for clarity, and included new resources for personal and group study, making this a unique and effective tool.

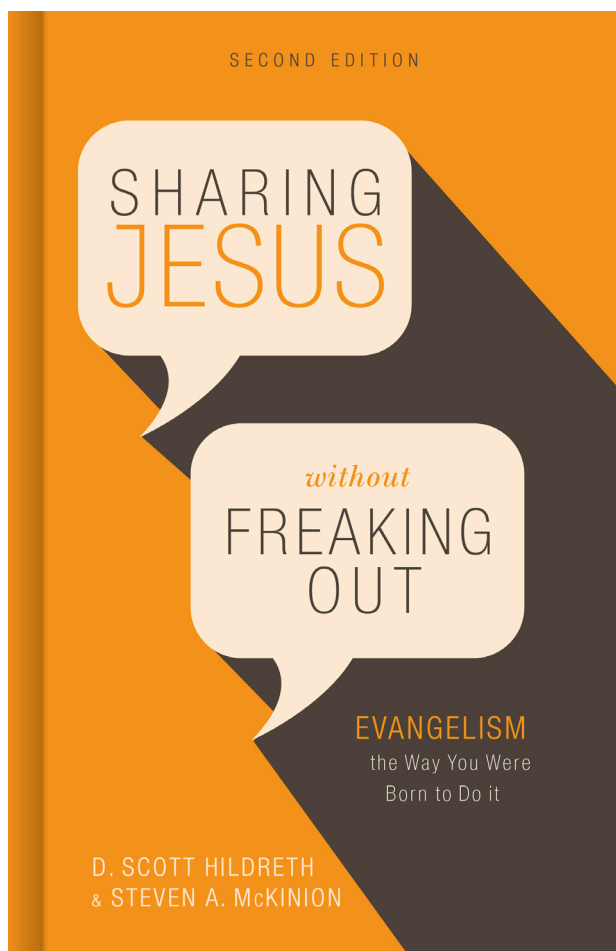

The same gospel story that changed your life can give you the ability to move beyond your insecurities and talk about Jesus. So be encouraged, because nothing you do for God is done alone. The Father sees you, the Son compels you, and the Spirit guides you and empowers you.

D. SCOTT HILDRETH is Assistant Professor of Global Studies and George Liele Director of the Center for Great Commission Studies at Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary in Wake Forest, NC.

STEVEN A. MCKINION is Professor of Theology and Patristic Studies at Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary in Wake Forest, NC.

CONTENTS

1. Evangelism Doesn't Have to Be Uncomfortable
2. Evangelism as Storytelling
3. Evangelism Is Better When It's a Conversation
4. Evangelism Is Contextual
5. Evangelism Listens to the Needs of Others
6. Evangelism Is an Announcement of Good News
7. Evangelism Is Best in Relationships
8. Evangelism Happens on Purpose
